

Global Passenger Network

Your Worldwide Transportation
Partner

What is Global Passenger Network?

- GPN is an organization of high quality bus operators with members in 25 countries.
- We guarantee our high standards of safety, quality and service in all the countries we serve.
- GPN members offer a wide variety of bus and other travel services.

Our mission

GPN's objective is to be the leading international organization in the field of surface passenger transportation, assuring its clients elevated benchmarks of safety, quality and service in all its member countries around the world.

A Short History of GPN

History (1/2)

- In July of 2006, a group of elite motor coach operators from ten countries met in Bologna, Italy, to explore ways to create strong and lasting partnerships with other companies around the world with a similar philosophy of quality and service.
- These founding members were looking for ways to guarantee their clients the same quality abroad that they offered in their own countries.

History (2/2)

- Nearly five years later, we have members in 25 countries, having just welcomed Egypt into our organization, and continuously adding new memberships.
- We remain focused on slow growth, preferring quality over quantity.
- To become a member, a company must meet and maintain strict standards in order to ensure uniform quality worldwide
